

Personal data protection

Although you can browse through most of websites without giving any personal information, in some cases information is required in order to provide the e-services you request. Websites that require such information treat it in full compliance with the regulation and provide information about the use of your data in their specific privacy policy statements.

In this respect:

- For each e-service, a controller determines the purposes and means of personal data processing and ensures conformity with the privacy policy
- In order to use third party content on our websites, you may need to accept their specific terms and conditions, including their cookie policies, over which we have no control.
- Interactive communication services that allow better contact with people, businesses, civil society and public bodies, in order to facilitate policy consultations and feedback.

You are free to refuse the use of this service – either via the cookie banner that appears at the top of the first page.

You may choose not to have a unique web analytics cookie identification number assigned to your computer to avoid the aggregation and analysis of data collected on this website. To make that choice, please click below to receive an opt-out cookie.
